15th. ALAÇATI INTERNATIONAL YOUTH AND CHILDREN'S THEATRE FESTIVAL

Dear Colleagues,

TOBAV (Turkish Theatre Opera and Ballet Members Foundation) with the purpose of spreading theater, opera and ballet culture, organizes festivals, workshops, seminars and carries out such initiatives; wishes to hold continuous campaign under the motto "YES TO ART."

One of the aim of this campaign to organise festivals for coming together and improving the philosophy of art as a life style through theatre and drama.

"15th International Child and Youth Theaters Festival" in Alaçatı will be held on June 29/July 5, 2009 with the collaboration of Municipality of Alaçatı and TOBAV.

With the municipality that gives great importance to art and tourism Alaçatı is a very well known surfing place wind mills and a conjunction point where multinational people meet to live it's touristic,cultural and historical values.

We believe that the art of theater abolishes the international borders and creates positive interpersonal relationships. In this context, we would like to see various examples such as street theater, alternative location, puppet theater, etc.,(less linguistic pieces are preferred) without making any discrimination between the types of theater.

If you have the intention to participate our festival we would like you to enclose the CD or DVD copies,brochures and pictures of your plays. The plays will be evaluated by the executive committee of TOBAV.

The total number of the members of the participating groups are expected to be maximum 15.

The accommodation and food expenses, including the traveling expenses in Turkey, will be covered by the festival committee. The traveling expenses of the foreign participants until the Turkish border will be covered by the participating groups.

The deadline for the applications is February 15, 2009.

Hope to see you in Alaçatı.
With our best regards
